Financial Aid Terms and Conditions

ELIGIBILITY Aid is available for payment only if you have been officially admitted (not conditionally). Eligibility is contingent on meeting Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policies. You must meet the academic requirements as described in the SAP Policy.

ENROLLMENT Financial aid offered is based on full time enrollment. Payments may be adjusted for part-time enrollment.

DISBURSEMENT When the University prepares your disbursement, your aid will be applied towards your university account for allowable institutional charges. Any funds remaining will be sent to you in a check or direct deposit.

REPAYMENT If you received a grant payment and your enrollment status is reduced during a term, you may be billed for any overpaid amount. Withdrawal from one of more courses may result in cancellation or repayment of part or all of your aid and may jeopardize future aid eligibility due to not meeting SAP.

TUITION FEE ASSISTANCE If you have received tuition fee assistance in the prior term, the Financial Aid Office assumes you will continue to receive those funds for the remainder of the award year. If this assistance has changed or if you have assistance from any source not included on your financial aid award, you must notify the Financial Aid Office. Receipt of these funds may result in an adjustment of aid initially offered.

PELL GRANT Eligibility is based on full time enrollment. Part time enrollment will result in reduction of aid. Eligibility is limited to a lifetime maximum of six years. Credential students must be enrolled in at least 6 Pell eligible units per term. The list of eligible courses in located on the Financial Aid Office website under “Types of Aid- Credential Students.”

LOANS Undergraduates, credential and 2nd Bachelor’s must be enrolled in at least 6 units to receive funds. Graduate students must be enrolled in at least 4 graduate level units (a 500 or 600 level course) or 6 units of lower division course work.

AID ADJUSTMENT AND CANCELCATION California State University, San Bernardino reserves the right to adjust or cancel financial aid awards at any time without notice. Adjustments or cancelation of financial aid can be caused by, but are not limited to, one or all of the following reasons:

• Eligibility error either by student or the Financial Aid Office
